F6. RECRUITMENT CAMPAIGN FOR ADVISORY COMMITTEES (CONTINUED FROM DECEMBER 11, 2001)

Mayor White opened the agenda item for public comments; which were received from Tom Jerele. Mayor White made a motion, seconded by Councilmember Stewart to approve the following recommendations to improve the recruitment process for advisory committees: 1) Accept year-round applications, which would be retained for one year after submittal; 2) Reduce to seven (by attrition, if necessary), the number of public voting members in those committees currently composed of nine members, with the exception of those committees who wish to retain the current membership levels. The number of nonvoting auxiliary members on any committees would not be reduced; 3) Allow committees to vote to meet quarterly or bi-monthly rather than monthly (some committees may choose to continue meeting monthly); 4) Hold an annual orientation program for prospective committee members; 5) Require that prospective applicants attend at least one meeting of their desired committee(s) prior to appointment; 6) Eliminate the current practice of preparing a staff report to request that Council declare a vacancy by formally delegating that responsibility to the City Clerk, thus expediting the recruiting process; 7) Announce future openings or vacancies during City Council meetings, upon notification of such openings or vacancies by the City Clerk; 8) Meet annually with committee chairpersons to receive reports from all committees; 9) Meet at least bi-annually with each committee to review their work programs and discuss policy issues; 10) Allow and encourage committees to initiate and agendize their own projects within their jurisdiction; 11) Direct committee members to set goals at the first quarterly meeting of year, with results (work program) presented to the City Council; 12) Utilize Moreno Valley Live to allow committee chairpersons or other members to publicize the purposes and assignments of their respective committees; 13) Direct staff to amend the Municipal Code and Administrative Policy to clarify the inconsistency regarding attendance; 14) Direct staff to agendize a discussion on the possible reduction of members of the Project Area Committee; 15) Direct staff to draft ordinance eliminating the Airport Commission. Motion carried 5-0. Roll call vote.
