Fantasy Springs Casino, where they enjoyed food, games, and entertainment. Approximately 150 seniors attended the New Year's Eve celebration, enjoying live music, food, and socializing as they welcomed the new year. The ASES program at middle schools engaged students in art and recruitment events. A Child's Place participants enjoyed a week-long Valentine's celebration filled with engaging activities. Participants welcomed their grandparents for a "Carnival of Love"-themed celebration. Demonstration garden workshops and Black History Month celebrations are scheduled in February.

C. Parks and Landscape Services

Dan Monto started updates with projects Parks and Landscape Services completed such as playground installations and trail repairs, with ongoing projects like trash receptacle replacement at Hidden Springs scheduled for April delivery. Trail repairs and landscaping ongoing across Marine Valley Ranch and Hidden Springs, expected completion by month-end. New contractor selected for restroom and playground projects; pre-construction meetings underway. Schedule a pre-construction meeting for the Adrienne Mitchell restroom building and confirm attendees and date. Projects in the planning and the design phase is the new restroom building at the Civic Center amphitheater, the design is complete and working on bid documents, the restroom renovation at Community Park has completed final design and is working on bid documents as well, picnic shelter replacements at Gateway and Hidden Springs Park, playground replacement at Vista Lomas Park, playground replacement at Pedorena Park.

D. Administration and Financial Service

Danielle Monarrez started updates about the ASES School program producing paper flowers and hosting a recruitment lunch in January. Library renovations include new carpeting and flooring. Black History Month events will take place in February. The Little Free Libraries are being replaced with primed, durable units. County Supervisor Gutierrez presented a certificate to the Moreno Valley Public Library.

E. Director Updates

Jeremy Bubnick started updates about the Lakeshore village satellite library's staging and demolition. The naming of a new park in the Sunset Crossing Development and the preparation of the CAPRA temporary review team visit (second week of March): compile required documentation, coordinate site tour logistics, and ensure standards readiness. He also mentioned that our department is trying to be more proactive with information on social media when the Flight Deck Park is closed due to weather. For the Senior Center expansion, we will have a more concrete timeline once we have the contractors out there but as of right now it has an estimated completion date of December 2026/January 2027.
