ABOUT the ELC

The Emerging Leaders Council (ELC) was established by City Council on April 8, 2014. The purpose of the ELC is to:

- Identify Moreno Valley students ages 14-20 with the desire and potential to become community leaders
- Educate those students in local and regional government policies and activities
- Focus their efforts on community service in Moreno Valley

WHAT You Will Do

- Create opportunities for public discussion of issues of importance to the community's youth and young adults
- Make recommendations to the City Council regarding youth-related programs, services, and legislation
- Attend educational, cultural, and leadership-centered excursions
- Attend city events as volunteers and representatives of the ELC

WHAT You Will Get

- Formal Swearing-In with the Mayor and City Council
- ELC Council members will receive a $25 stipend for every monthly meeting attended
- College-aged youth enrolled in Moreno Valley College will receive special consideration for the Mayor's Challenge MoVal Learns stipend
- FREE LinkedIn Learning Account
